Attached for your signature is a proposed response to a letter from the President of the Washington Chapter of the Society for Advancement of Management. He has invited the Agency to participate in the 7th running of an Advanced Management Course to be presented two nights a week during the period from October to May.

CIA has not participated in this Course previously but the flyer on it appears attractive. Cost of the Course is about $500. No final decision has been made as to whether we will have a candidate.

Request your signature.
